ML Wilson

JUN 19, 1945 - DEC 20, 2025

A Time To Be Born

ML Wilson was born on June 19, 1945 in Hinds County to the late Walter Wilson and Alberteen Lovett-Wilson. He entered the world at home under the care of midwife Sadie Singleton.

A Time To Plant

At the age of ten, ML confessed his faith in Jesus Christ and joined the Good Hope Baptist Church. He began his education in the Madison County School System. During his school years, ML's father lost his sight, and at just sixteen years old, ML relocated to Bolton, Mississippi, to help care for his family. He purchased his first car, a 1957 model, and took great joy in driving his family wherever they needed to go. ML also had a deep love for gardening, tending the earth with patience and pride. He was united in marriage to Beatrice Jelks, and to this union five children were born. In 2004, ML retired from Englehard after thirty-five years of dedicated service.

A Time For Eternal Security

On Saturday, December 20, 2025, ML completed his earthly journey, fulfilling his purpose with grace and devotion. Though his passing brings sorrow, it is not the end, it is a homegoing. He now rests peacefully with those who went before him: his parents; his sister, Irene Hill; and his Grother, Walter Wilson.

A Wonderful Time to Remember

ML leaves to cherish his memory his loving wife, Beatrice Jelks Wilson; his children: Alice Jelks, Kathleen (Tyrone) Pearson, Willie (Regina) Jelks, Loretta Jelks, and L.C. Jelks; his stepdaughter: Annie Oliver; his sisters: Alice Nichols and Essie Wilson. He also leaves behind cherished grandchildren, great-grandchildren, and a host of other relatives and friends who will forever hold his memory close.

My last memory of Mr ML was when he came to visit my dad in Clinton Healthcare when my dad was in rehab back in April. My dad was over joyed to see one of his oldest and best friend come and see him. He talked to Mr ML for a long time and I could tell Mr ML knew what he was saying he smiled a few times even though my pic doesn't show . He doesn't smile in pictures. I'm sure gonna miss him coming to Bolton standing outside talking Jive talk with my dad as they lean over the back bed of a pick up truck. My dad says they did everything together as young men; even worked at the same job for 35 years and retired the same year 2004! I Love you Mr. ML Angela Donerson- Bolin.
